No. 4198 Free & Accepted Masons

Worshipful Master Kevin Green

What is Freemasonry?

! Masonry consists of a body of men brought together for the sake of mutual intellectual, social and moral improvement.

! Masonry recognises no distinction of religion and emphasises the duties of citizenship. Religious or political discussion is not permitted in Lodge meetings.

! Masonry offers no monetary advantages.

! Masonry supports a wide range of charities, both Masonic and non-Masonic.

Why become a Freemason?

People have their own reasons why they enjoy Freemasonry. The following is a sample of some of the reasons given:

Achievement – progressing through the various offices in the Lodge to become Worshipful Master.

Brotherhood – making new friends and acquaintances from all walks of life, every background and age group.

Charity – being able to contribute to deserving causes, both Masonic and non-Masonic.

Education – learning from peers and mentors by practising ritual and making short speeches.

Knowledge – finding out about the history and mysteries of Freemasonry.

Self improvement – making a contribution to your family and society.

Masonry recognises no distinction of religion and emphasises the duties of citizenship. Religious or political discussion is not permitted in Lodge meetings
